

Financial Strength

We pride ourselves on our disciplined approach that leads to a strengthened balance sheet and high-quality asset portfolio. We've proven our ability to get sustainable returns across various market environments.

Athene Operating Subsidiaries Ratings

Rating agencies meet annually with Athene to review and rate our performance. These ratings are independent opinions reflecting our ability to meet ongoing obligations to our customers.¹

A.M. Best as of 4/2022

A

Outlook: Stable

S&P
as of 12/2022

A+

Outlook: Stable

Fitch
as of 5/2022

A+

Outlook: Stable

Moody's
as of 7/2022

A1

Outlook: Stable

Financial Highlights

$246.0

billion in total
GAAP assets²

$243.7

billion in total
GAAP liabilities²

$916

million in total GAAP AHL shareholders' equity³

$47.9

billion in gross organic inflows⁴

$196.5

billion in net
invested assets²

$2.3

billion in excess capital³

Why Athene?

Strong track record since inception. Well-positioned for future growth.

- ✓ Efficient and scalable platform
- ✓ Strong balance sheet
- ✓ Stable and significant base of earnings
- ✓ Strong capitalization levels with a growing capital base
- ✓ Experienced management team
 - ✓ 165 years of leadership experience
- ✓ Multiple distribution channels to source liabilities
 - ✓ Retail: #1 in fixed-indexed annuity sales (2022, 2021, 2020)⁵
 - ✓ Flow reinsurance: a leading reinsurer in the annuity industry
 - ✓ Funding agreements⁶: For the year 2021, we generated $11.9 billion in funding agreement inflows. We were the #1 issuer of funding agreement backed notes (FABNs) with $11.1 billion of issuance across six different currencies.
 - ✓ Pension group annuities: Athene was the #1 U.S. PRT provider by volume⁵ in 2021 and 2020. We generated $13.8 billion in inflows for the year 2021.
 - ✓ Acquisitions and block reinsurance transactions: ability to consummate complex transactions
- ✓ Robust risk management
- ✓ Powered by Apollo. Apollo gives us a competitive advantage through its tailored portfolio and asset management capabilities.